Annexure I

S.No	RFP Clause Name & No.	RFP Clause	Bidders Query/Suggestoin/Remarks	BHEL Reply
1	Part B TCC, Clause 3.3 General Scope of Work	The successful bidder shall install and configure the antivirus servers / management servers / intermediary servers (BHEL shall provide the hardware along with Windows / Linux operating system) for getting updates automatically from the internet at the locations as per Annexure - I. Any other additional hardware or software components required for the successful configuration of the antivirus servers / management servers / intermediary servers, has to be supplied by the successful bidder. In case of appliance based solution, the appliance to be provided by the bidder	Kindly clarify what all hardware/software infrastructure will be provided by BHEL and what is expected from bidder to be provided. This clarity is required as requirement may vary significantly based on the deployment architecture finally agreed between successful bidder and BHEL post award of the contract.	The deployment architecture / landscape shall be finalized with the successful bidder. Accordingly, the no. of server to be provided by BHEL and the successful bidder shall be finalized. For the server provided by BHEL, only the base OS i.e., Windows / Linux shall be provided by BHEL.
2	TCC Clause 3.3 General Scope of Work	The successful bidder shall install and configure the antivirus servers / management servers / intermediary servers (BHEL shall provide the hardware along with Windows / Linux operating system) for getting updates automatically from the internet at the locations as per Annexure - I. Any other additional hardware or software components required for the successful configuration of the antivirus servers / management servers / intermediary servers, has to be supplied by the successful bidder. In case of appliance based solution, the appliance to be provided by the bidder	Kindly Clarify Whether Hardware and related Software will be Provided by BHEL or it has to be provided by Bidder. Given Clause is confusing	The no. of server to be provided by BHEL and the successful bidder shall be finalized post award of work. For the server provided by BHEL, only the base OS i.e., Windows / Linux shall be provided by BHEL.
3	TCC Clause 3.16 General Scope of Work	For the endpoints having unsupported/end of life OS, the successful bidder shall provide the antivirus support	Providing the support will not challenge for outdated machines. So kindly share us the OS details information. In Old OS, the latest AV software packages won't be supported. So Please remove this point.	BHEL needs support for Windows 7 which has been declared end of life by OEM, Microsoft.
