10. Conditions for rejection of offers:

Following is the list of situations which would lead to rejection of offer/s. This list is not exhaustive but only indicative. BHEL reserve the right to reject one or all offers without assigning any reason. The decision of BHEL will be final in this regard.

- a. If the offer fails to meet the technical requirements/specifications of the tendered item/s.
- b. If the offer does not meet the commercial terms & conditions, such as but not limited to delivery period specified in the tender, Delivery terms, payment terms, Liquidated damages, Risk Purchase, cancellation clause etc., including the load factors specified in the tender.
- c. If the bidder fails to respond to clarification sought, within a reasonable period. In case of doubts / lack of clarity on the technical and commercial offer of the bidder, BHEL will seek clarifications.

Bidders are required to respond completely to such BHEL's queries within 3 working days unless otherwise agreed to in writing by BHEL for period beyond 3 days. If supplier fails to respond within 3 working days or maximum 2 working days on a reminder thereon, the offer of such bidders will be automatically dis-qualified in the tender without further recourse to informing the bidder.

- d. If any of the conditions listed below are applicable to the bidder, the offer is liable to be rejected:

11. BHEL prefers to directly deal with all manufacturer/OEM and discourages use of agents/authorized dealers etc. However, if insisted by manufacture/OEM, in a tender, either the agents/authorized dealer on behalf of the manufacture/OEM or the manufacture/OEM itself can bid but both cannot bid simultaneously for the same item/product in the same tender. If an agent submits bid on behalf of the manufacture/OEM, the same agent shall not submit a bid on behalf of another manufacture/OEM in the same tender for the same item/product. On violation of this clause, all offers submitted by manufacture/OEM shall be liable for rejection. Manufacture/OEM are to ensure that their agents do not represent any other manufacturer/OEM in the same tender.

12. Explanation: some of terms used above are clarified here.

- I. BHEL – Bharat Heavy Electricals Limited
- II. Supplier/Seller – Bidder on which Purchase order is placed by BHEL for supply of materials.
- III. MSE - Micro and Small Scale Enterprises as per MSME Act 2006.

8. Benefits to MSE Suppliers as per MSME Act 2006 and Public Procurement Policy 2012:

MSE suppliers can avail the intended benefits only if they submit along with the offer, attested copies of either EM-II certificate having deemed validity (five years from the date of issue of acknowledgement in EM II) or valid NSIC certificate or EM-II certificate along with attested copy of a CA certificate (Format enclosed at Annexure-I where deemed validity of EM-II certificate of five years has expired) applicable for the relevant financial year (latest audited) or Udyog Aadhar Memorandum (UAM). Date to be reckoned for determining the deemed validity will be the date of bid opening (Part 1 in case of two part bid). Non submission of such documents will lead to consideration of their bid at par with other bidders. No benefit shall be applicable for this enquiry if any deficiency in the above-required documents are not submitted before price bid opening. If the tender is to be submitted through e-procurement portal, then such documents are to be uploaded on the portal. Bidder are also advised to declare their UAM No. in their offer and on invoice to get benefit of MSE Act 2006.

9. Force Majeure

If at any time during the currency of this contract, the performance in whole or in part, by either party of any obligations under this contract shall be prevented or delayed by reason, of any war, hostilities, acts of the public enemy, civil commotion, sabotage, fires, explosions, epidemics, quarantine, restrictions or acts of GOD (hereinafter referred to as events), then provided notice of happening of any such events is given by either party to other within ten days from the date of occurrence thereof, neither party shall reason of such events be entitled to terminate this contract nor shall either party have any such nonperformance and delay is resumed as soon as practicable after such events has come to an end or ceased to exist. If the performance in whole or part of any obligation under this contract is prevented or delayed by reason or any such event, claims for extension of time shall be granted for period considered reasonable by the purchaser subject to prompt notification by the seller to the purchaser of the particulars of the events and supply to the purchaser if required of any supporting evidence. Any waiver of time in respect of partial installment shall not be deemed to be a waiver of time in respect of remaining deliveries.
