The decision of BHEL in respect of such losses, damages, charges, expenses or costs, shall be final and binding to the contractor.

- 28) BHEL looks forward to get excellent services from the bidder. The contractor will be responsible for the quality of the work.
- 29) The bidder along with its associate/ collaborators/ sub-contractors/ sub-vendors/ consultants/ Physiotherapists shall strictly adhere to BHEL Fraud Prevention Policy displayed on BHEL website <http://www.bhel.com> and shall immediately bring to the notice of BHEL Management about any fraud or suspected fraud as soon as it comes to their notice.
- 30) TERMINATION OF CONTRACT: BHEL may terminate the contract by giving not less than thirty day's written notice of termination to the successful tenderer for the following reasons: -
- a) If the successful tenderer does not remedy a failure in performance of their obligation under the contract, within thirty days after being notified.
 - b) In the event of external factors (like natural disaster) which are beyond the control of the contractor or BHEL.
 - c) In case the personnel deployed by the contractor found to have indulged in any criminal activity.
 - d) In case of any misrepresentation while claiming the payment.
 - e) In the event of failure/ inability of one party or the other.
 - f) In case of non-compliance of any statutory obligations during the contract.
 - g) Without prejudice to any of the rights or remedies under this contract, if the contractor dies, the accepting officer shall have the option of terminating the contract without compensation to the contractor's survivors.
- 31) MICRO AND SMALL ENTERPRISES (MSE): -MSE Supplier can avail the intended benefits only if they submit along with offer, attested copies of either Udyog Aadhar or EM-II certificate having deemed validity (five years from the date of issue of acknowledgement in EM-II) or the valid NSIC certificate or EM-II certificate along with attested copy of a CA Certificate (format enclosed as ANNEXURE- VII) where deemed validity of EM-II certificate of five years has expired applicable for the last audited financial year. Date to be reckoned for determining the deemed validity will be the date of bid opening. Non submission of such documents will lead to consideration of their bid at par with other bidders. No benefit shall be applicable for this enquiry if any deficiency in the above required documents are not submitted before price bid opening.
- 32) SECURITY OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION: The bidder(s)/contractor agree & acknowledge that in the course of their discussions and interaction, BHEL may disclose information of confidential proprietary nature relating to its business, products, know-how, technology, customers, employees and financial to the bidder(s)/contractor. Such information shall be considered as confidential. The contractor agrees to keep it confidential & secret at all times and not directly or indirectly disclose to any party other than its employees and authorized personnel's strictly on a need know basis, without the prior written permission of BHEL.
- 33) RECOVERY FROM CONTRACTOR: Whenever under the contract, any sum of money shall be recoverable from or payable by the contractor, the same may be deducted from any sum then due or which at any time thereafter may become due to the contractor under the contract or under any other contract with BHEL or from his security deposit, or the contractor shall pay the claim on demand without any terms & conditions.
- 34) FORCE MAJEURE: A Force Majeure (FM) means extraordinary events or circumstance beyond human control such as an event described as an Act of God (like a natural calamity) or events such as war, strike, riots, crimes (but not including negligence or wrong-doing, predictable/seasonal rain and any other events specifically excluded in the clause). An FM clause in the contract frees both parties from contractual liability or obligation when prevented by such events from fulfilling their obligations under the contract. An FM clause does not excuse a party's non-performance entirely, but only suspends it for the duration of the FM. The firm has to give notice of FM as soon as it occurs and it cannot be claimed ex-post facto. There may be a FM situation affecting the purchase organization only. In such a situation, the purchase organization is to communicate with the supplier along similar lines as above for further necessary action. If the performance in whole or in part or any obligation under this contract is prevented or delayed by any reason of FM for a period exceeding 90 (Ninety) days, either party may at its option terminate the contract without any financial repercussion on either side.

Notwithstanding the punitive provisions contained in the contract for delay or breach of contract, the supplier would not be liable for imposition of any such sanction so long as the delay and/or failure of the supplier in fulfilling its obligations under the contract is the result of an event covered in the FM clause.

35) POST TECHNICAL AUDIT OF WORK AND BILLS: BHEL reserves the right to carry out a post payment audit and technical examination of the work and final bill including all supporting vouchers, abstracts etc. and to enforce recovery of any sums becoming due as a result thereof in the manner provided into the proceeding sub-paragraph provided however, that no such recovery shall be enforced after three years of passing the final bill.

36) SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES:

a) CONVILIATION: if at any time (whether before, during or after the arbitral or judicial proceedings), any disputes (which term shall mean and include any dispute, difference, question or disagreement arising in connection with construction, meaning, operation, execution, effect, interpretation or breach of the Contract, which the Parties are unable to settle mutually, arise inter-se the Parties, the same may be referred by either Party to Conciliation to be conducted through Independent Experts Committee (IEC) to be appointed by competent authority from the BHEL Panel of Conciliators.

The proceedings of Conciliation shall broadly be governed by Part-III of the Arbitration & Conciliation Act, 1996 or any statutory modification thereof and as provided in the BHEL Conciliation Scheme as applicable from time to time.

b) ARBITRATION / CONCILIATION: In the event of any dispute arising between the parties hereafter referred as BHEL and Contractor in respect of or connected with this contract, General & Special terms & conditions of tender, then the same shall be referred to Arbitration and Arbitrator will be nominated by the Head of Administration of BHEL Corp. Office, New Delhi, whose decision shall be final and binding on both the parties. However, any differences or doubt pertaining to meaning/ interpretation of any phrase word used in terms or in the schedule of services, their nature and manner of rendering of such services shall be the excepted matter and be referred to the Head of Administration of BHEL Corp. Office, New Delhi, whose decision shall be the final and binding. The provisions of Arbitration and Conciliation Act, 1996 or any statutory modification and re-enactment thereof will apply to such arbitration provided however, in all matters the venue of proceedings will be Delhi and only Delhi or appropriate Courts will have jurisdiction over the same.

37) RISK CLAUSE: BHEL reserves the right to terminate the contract due to any failure on the part of the Contractor in discharging his obligations under the contract or in the event of his becoming insolvent or going into liquidation. The decision of the BHEL about the failure on the part of the Contractor shall be final and binding on the Contractor. In the event of any failure on the part of the Contractor, BHEL shall have the right without any prejudice to get the work done through any other alternate agency at the risk and cost of Contractor. The additional cost including loss (worked out after levying 30 % overheads as departmental charges on the cost of materials/ services so purchase/ hired), if any incurred by BHEL will be recovered from the Contractor.
