C8 Loading:

If L1 vendor is a new vendor, development PO will be released. On successful completion, further loading shall be decided.

BHEL reserves the right to cancel/ refloat the tender, if the prices are abnormally higher than estimates. Further, BHEL reserve the right to negotiate with L1 vendor and split the tender among bidders to meet its requirement by giving counter offers. If registered vendor is L1, it shall be given minimum of 60% of quantity indicated or its capacity. BHEL reserves the right to accept/reject any bid for any reason of past performance of bidder.

BHEL reserves the right to give counter-offer to any number of vendors. Loading beyond L1's capacity (or BHEL discretion beyond 60%, as the case may be) shall be done on L2, if it accepts counter-offers. If L2 is not able to take balance load (criteria: minimum of 30% and its capacity), L3 shall be contacted. If L2 does not accepts counter-offer, L3 shall be automatically contacted for next loading reserved for L2 and so on. BHEL reserves the right to continue placing orders on any higher bidder who has accepted RC for meeting its requirement, if L1 bidder is new vendor and is taking time for executing development order/any other issue.

BHEL reserves the discretion of deciding loading in any proportion depending upon execution of orders by suppliers and our requirement. Maximum loading to L1 shall be ensured provided despatches are made as committed. BHEL reserves the right of not giving counter-offer to highest bidder.
