

AMENDMENT NO 05 TO THE BIDDING DOCUMENT NVVN/C&M/RE-53/2020-21 FOR ANDAMAN NICOBAR GAS POWER PROJECT (50 MW)

S. No	Document No./Section/Part/Chapter	Clause No. & Clause description	Existing Provision	Amended/Added Provision
1	Section II – Instructions to Bidders	Clause 32.2	Upon the successful Bidder's furnishing of the performance securities pursuant to ITB Clause 34, the Employer will promptly notify each unsuccessful Bidder and will discharge its bid security, pursuant to ITB Sub-Clause 12.5.	Discharge of Bid security to the unsuccessful bidder shall be governed by ITB Sub-Clause 12.5.
2	Bid Data Sheet	Clause 5	Period of validity of Bid Security: 45 days beyond expiry of the validity of bid, i.e. 225 days from from the deadline for submission of bid.	Period of validity of Bid Security: 45 days beyond expiry of the validity of bid, i.e. 225 days from from the date of opening of techno-commercial bids.
3	General	General	Wherever plant and equipment including Mandatory Spares is specified to be manufactured within the Employer's Country may be read as	Plant and Equipment (including Type Test Charges) and Mandatory Spares to be supplied from within the Employer's country If import of any equipment is envisaged subject to adherence of BDS Clause 16 ("Restrictions on procurement from a Bidder of a country which shares a land border with India"), it shall be included in Schedule I and the price to be quoted in INR only. Clause ITB 8.2.1 (i) and (ii) shall be referred where declaration of the Import content has to be given by Bidder and the Bidder shall quote the CIF value of import content in the Ex-works (India) price quoted in Schedule-1 of the bid.