		nentioned on the tender form or to any other address subsequently intimated by Contractor in writing to BHEL HPEP or the contract purposes or to his e-mail address.
		2.1.36 SITE VISIT:
		a. Before quoting, the tenderers are advised to inspect the site of work and its environments and be well acquainted vith the actual working and other prevailing conditions, position of materials and labour related procedures & practices. They should be well versed with BHEL General Conditions of Contract, Instructions to tenderers, drawings wherever applicable and specifications and all other documents which form part of the agreement to be entered into ubsequent to award of work. The tenderers shall specially note that it is the tenderer's responsibility to provide any tem which is not specially mentioned in the specification or drawing, but which is necessary to complete the work
		o. The tenderer/Bidder and any of his authorized personnel or agents will be granted permission by the BHEL to enter upon its premises and lands for the purpose of site visit. However the bidder shall express condition that he, his personnel, and agents will be responsible against all liability in respect thereof, including death or personal injury, oss of or damage to property, and any other loss, damage, costs, and expenses incurred as a result of the inspection.
	1	The Bidder should inform the BHEL at least 2 days (time may be fixed in consultation with tender issuing authority) n advance about the proposed site visit. The Bidder, at his own responsibility and risk is encouraged to visit, inspect and survey the Site and its surroundings and satisfy himself before submitting his bid as to the form and nature of the site, the means of access to the Site, the accommodation he may require, etc.
		f. In general, Bidders shall themselves obtain all necessary information. A Bidder shall be deemed to have full knowledge of the Site, whether he inspects it or not and no extra claims due to any misunderstanding or otherwise hall be allowed. The cost of visiting the Site shall be at the Bidders' own expense. Any deviations of information in he report and the actual site will not be the responsibility of the BHEL
