

ENQ 7290903E

PRE-QUALIFICATION REQUIREMENT

The prospective supplier should meet the following Pre-Qualification requirements:

- 1) Should be a manufacturer of Electrical Actuator/authorised Indian agent for Foreign manufacturers.
- 2) Should have supplied Electric Actuators for power plant or process industry applications with torque ranges similar to indented actuators.
- 3) Supplied actuator should be successfully operating for atleast One-year period (Prior to the date of tender).
- 4) The vendor should provide suitable End User Certificate from their customers for their satisfactory performance, indicating Date of supply and commissioning of the above, torque ratings, quantity of supply and other details.
- 5) Authorized service centres should be available in India.
- 6) Established in-house facility to carry out all routine & acceptance tests as per relevant International Standards shall be available with vendor.
- 7) The consideration of the offers of the suppliers are subjected to the approval by BHEL's end customer.
- 8) The documentary evidence shall be either in English or should have been translated to English by authorised Translator by Indian Government/Indian Government nominated agency.