3. Penalty Clause: A separate job card shall be issued with a definite date of commencement and completion (to be decided mutually considering magnitude of work, department's urgency and load of ongoing works in the same contract). The delay beyond completion date specified in the job card which is attributable to the contractor shall attract penalty @ 0.15% of the value of assigned work (for which job card has been issued) for each day of delay. However, cumulative sum of all such penalties shall not exceed 10% of the original contract value.

During intermittent review, if the progress of work(s) assigned to the contractor is found unsatisfactory, the contractor would be served a written advice by the department to amend and take corrective measures to improve. If the contractor fails to amend and take corrective measures as suggested by the department even after issuance of three such advices, the department at its discretion may short close the contract with forfeiture of Security amount on awarded contract value in addition to short closure penalty of 10% of the original contract value (earlier levied penalty against delay shall be adjusted in short closure penalty).

In the event of short closure under above mentioned circumstances, the contractor shall be debarred from participation in the next tender for similar works.
